

Direct Support Worker

Job Summary

Our organization strongly believes that every individual deserves the opportunity to achieve their fullest potential. At the present time, we are looking for an experienced individual to fill the role of Direct Support Worker.

The right candidate will be responsible for providing compassionate care and assistance to persons with intellectual disabilities. If you have prior experience working with intellectual disabilities adults in a direct care role, we encourage you to apply for this position.

Responsibilities

- Provide supervision and guidance for Clients during ISP skills building activities
- Assist with daily living activities, including preparing meals and assisting with personal hygiene if applicable
- Develop a rapport with Clients and cultivate a safe and supportive relationship
- Update client's case notes on a daily basis

Skills

- High school diploma/GED required
- 2+ years' experience providing direct care to patients with intellectual and developmental disabilities is a plus
- Valid driver's license
- Current Vehicle registration and insurance
- Current First Aid and CPR certification is a plus
- Excellent organizational, interpersonal and communication skills
- Compassionate about the care and well-being of other